Revisions to this Code of Conduct, including the sanctions and fines to be assessed under this Code, shall be made by the National Scholarship and Standards Committee and approved by the National Board of Directors.

DISCIPLINARY ACTION CODE

Executive Summary

The Disciplinary Action Code is embodied in the Notice to Applicant/Candidate/Pyramid Regarding Privilege and Responsibilities and the Acknowledgement of Rights and Responsibilities of Members of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Regarding Membership Intake Prohibitions (No Hazing Contracts). It sets forth the types of improper conduct, on the part of sorors, members, pyramids, candidates, applicants, and chapters, that are unacceptable and, thus, prohibited. Such improper and unacceptable conduct is subject to sanctions, including financial penalties. Sanctions may be applied from any section of the code regardless of the category where it is specifically identified.

The Disciplinary Action Code clearly defines the types of conduct and activities that constitute a violation of the Code and, thus, are unacceptable and prohibited conduct and activities. The enumerated sanctions and fines are designed to address the consequences of a chapter, a member, a soror, an applicant, a candidate, or a pyramid engaging in unacceptable and prohibited conduct. Conduct and activities that violate a state or federal law may result in consequences beyond those delineated in this Code.

Knowing the difference between effectively managing and resolving conflict versus exercising the Disciplinary Action Code is key to productive interpersonal relationships in local chapters. There may be instances of interpersonal conflict (e.g. change, power structure/struggles, ineffective communication structures, ineffective processes/procedures, conflicting goals and objectives, etc.) that do not need to be escalated as a violation of the Disciplinary Action Code. Sources of conflict within the chapter and among members that cannot be resolved internally should be referred to the Regional Director for conflict resolution intervention and management.

Applicants, candidates, and pyramids shall be barred from membership for participating in, and/or failing to report any type of conduct that is deemed unacceptable and in violation of the Sorority's approved Membership Intake Program, including those policies which are summarized in the Notice to Applicant/Candidate/Pyramid Regarding Privilege and Responsibilities and detailed in numerous other documents provided to the applicants, candidates, and pyramids.

Any applicant, candidate, or pyramid shall be barred from membership at any point in the process in which the Sorority discovers, through any means, that the applicant, candidate or pyramid has engaged in conduct or activities at any point, that would, as determined by the Sorority in its sole discretion, defame the Sorority or diminish its esteem, respect or goodwill; injure its reputation; or are inconsistent with the high ideals of the Sorority.

Any soror shall be expelled from membership, if at any time after initiation the Sorority discovers that during the process in which she was an applicant, candidate, or pyramid she engaged in activities, participated in, and/or failed to report any type of conduct that is deemed unacceptable and in violation of the Sorority's approved Membership Intake Program.

As provided in the Constitution and Bylaws and specified in detail in this Code of Conduct, sorors and chapters may be placed on probation and/or fined by the Regional Director, the National Scholarship and Standards Committee, or the National President for engaging in prohibited conduct or activities. Sorors and chapters on probation shall not participate in any activity of the Sorority, except specified, monitored activities approved by the Regional Director and the National Scholarship and Standards Committee. As a condition of reinstatement, a soror or chapter must satisfy all financial obligations imposed as a result of the probation and must successfully complete a specified program of rehabilitation over a period of time as prescribed by the Regional Director or the National Scholarship and Standards Committee.

As provided in the Bylaws, the National President is authorized to suspend or expel a soror as well as suspend a chapter or revoke its charter. Sorors and chapters also may be disciplined by the National Scholarship and Standards Committee or Regional Director, with the approval of the National President. A soror or chapter that has been disciplined may be fined and directed to repay expenses, as provided in the Code of Conduct, irrespective of who imposes the disciplinary action.

Sorors or chapters upon whom fines or restitution has been imposed may not participate in any activities of the Sorority until said obligation has been fully satisfied. During the period of individual or chapter suspension, neither the soror, the chapter, nor any of its members who have been disciplined shall participate in any activity of the Sorority except those rehabilitative activities. To be reinstated, a suspended chapter or soror must satisfy all financial obligations imposed as a result of the suspension and must successfully complete an individually-tailored rehabilitation program, over a prescribed period of time. The rehabilitation program shall be supervised by the Regional Director. If a soror has not satisfied her fine or financial obligation within five (5) years of the ending of the period of sanction (e.g., within five (5) years of the last day of a three (3) year sanction), she shall be expelled by the National President. The National President also has the authority to revoke a chapter's charter if the chapter's fine or financial obligations have not been satisfied within a ten year period, from the inception of the sanction. Chapters that fail to remedy the condition leading to suspension may be required to appear, at the expense of the suspended chapter, before the National Board of Directors for a hearing.

When the Sorority imposes discipline of any kind (probation, suspension, fine, and the requirement to make restitution, expulsion, or revocation of a charter) upon a soror or chapter, it shall provide the disciplined soror or chapter with written notice of the charge (prohibited conduct or activities) and the reason for the sanction imposed. The written notice shall specify the soror's or chapter's appeal rights, the time for filing the appeal, and the procedure for computing the filing time. Within 45 days of receiving notice of sanctions, a soror or chapter may appeal at her or its own expense. The time for computing the 45 days is provided in the Chapter Management Handbook. In accordance with the appeals procedure as set forth in the Chapter Management Handbook, the request to appeal may be brought before the following, in the order listed: the National Scholarship and Standards Committee, the National Board of Directors, and the Executive Session during the National Convention.

Membership in the Sorority may be suspended by the National Board of Directors for an extended period when the circumstances warrant such action.

When a soror has been placed on probation, suspended, or expelled from the Sorority; and when an applicant, candidate, or pyramid has been barred from membership, her name shall be posted on the Sorority's public website within a designated section and shall remain until the Sorority, in its sole discretion, decides to remove the name.

Any public display or use of the Sorority's property that may create embarrassment for the Sorority or any individual soror is a violation of the Disciplinary Action Code. This includes but is not limited to, using various derivatives of the Sorority's name and its symbols, trademarks and service marks for shows, presentations, performances or for personal use.

Any soror who repeatedly violates the Code of Conduct will be expelled.

Applicants/candidates/pyramids may be barred from membership by the Regional Director, as specified in this Code of Conduct.

Section 10: Lawsuits

A person has a legal right to press charges against any entity for any reason; however, only through a court of law can a case be deemed a frivolous suit. In some cases, legal lawsuits are brought against the Sorority after evidence has been reviewed and presented by the appropriate sorority committees; whereas the plaintiff still deems it necessary and appropriate to move the proceedings forward. Additionally, some cases are brought forward in bad faith by either the soror, applicant, candidate, or pyramid for the purpose of harassing the Grand Chapter, one of its chapters, its National Officers, and/or National Board of Director members. These lawsuits cost the Grand Chapter, its chapters, or its National Officers unnecessary financial hardship that ultimately may be borne by the entire Sorority.

BINDING ARBITRATION

BINDING ARBITRATION PROCEDURES

Pursuant to Article XIV of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated's Constitution and Bylaws these procedures detail the process to be followed by any member, soror or chapter who seeks redress from the Sorority arising out of, or relating to, any Sorority activity or transaction.

Disciplinary matters involving members, sorors or chapters are not ripe for arbitration adjudication until the exhaustion of the three-level Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. adjudication process. If a disciplinary appellant is not satisfied with the disposition from the Level III Appeal process, the appellant may request arbitration. Arbitration requests shall be made in writing and submitted no later than 30 calendar days of receipt of the Level III Appeal decision. Arbitration requests shall be forwarded to Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, Attn: Arbitration, Membership Department, 1707 New Hampshire Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20009.

Members, sorors or chapters seeking redress for non-disciplinary disputes, conflicts, claims and/or causes of action shall submit a request for arbitration by written communication. The Arbitration requests shall be forwarded to Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, Attn: Arbitration, Legal Department 1707 New Hampshire Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20009.

The arbitration shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association (AAA) or JAMS, the world's largest private alternative dispute resolution(ADR) provider, preferably the District of Columbia location. Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated shall designate the arbitration administrator. The arbitrations shall be conducted under the terms of the Federal Arbitration Act 9 U.S.C.& 1. et seq., and the current Commercial Arbitration Rules of the AAA. Delta shall designate the administrator of the arbitration not later than 45 calendar days of receipt of the written request for arbitration. Within 30 calendar days of the designation of the arbitration administrator, a mutually agreed upon arbitrator shall be designated.

Within 14 calendar days after the parties have mutually agreed upon the arbitrator, the selected arbitrator shall contact Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, and the complainant/appellant for the purpose of scheduling a mutually agreeable hearing date. If, within 14 calendar days of the date the arbitrator is first contacted to schedule a mutually agreeable date(s) for the hearing, the arbitrator is unable to determine a mutually agreeable date, the arbitrator shall, set a hearing date to occur within 45 calendar days from the date that the panel of arbitrators were selected. If the arbitrator is not available within the 45 calendar days, subject to the concurrence of the parties, the arbitration may be convened at the first date(s) of the arbitrator's availability. If the parties do not concur with a date beyond the 45 days another arbitrator shall be designated to convene the arbitration.

At least 15 calendar days prior to the hearing, the arbitrator shall convene the parties for a prehearing conference, in person, telephonically or virtually, to discuss possible settlement and means of expediting the hearing. During this conference, the parties will discuss the issue(s) and reduce them to writing, exchange witness lists, determine whether any facts can be stipulated, and determine whether any documents or exhibits can be authenticated. The arbitrators shall ensure that this discussion does not prejudice which witnesses are called to testify.

The hearing, or any portion thereof, may be conducted in person, telephonically or virtually with the agreement of the parties or at the discretion of the arbitrator. During the hearing, the arbitrator shall consider evidence and material relevant to the dispute, giving the evidence such weight as is appropriate. The panel of arbitrators may limit testimony to exclude evidence that would be immaterial or unduly repetitive, provided that all parties are afforded the opportunity to present material and relevant evidence.

The arbitrator may issue a bench decision at the hearing. If a decision is not issued at the conclusion of the hearing, the arbitrator shall render a decision as quickly as possible but, not later than 30 calendar days after the official conclusion of the hearing, unless the parties mutually agree to extend the time limit. The decision of the trial arbitrator may be appealed to an appellate arbitration panel.

Appeal of the trial arbitrator's decision shall be made in writing and submitted no later than 14 calendar days of receipt of the decision of the trial arbitrator. Disciplinary related appeals shall be forwarded to Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, Attn: Arbitration Appeal, Membership Department, 1707 New Hampshire Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20009. Non-disciplinary related appeals shall be forwarded to Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated, Attn: Arbitration Appeal, Legal Department 1707 New Hampshire Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20009. If the decision is not appealed within 14 calendar days of the trial arbitrator's final order, the decision shall become final and binding upon all parties.

The three-member appellate arbitration shall be administered by the previously designated arbitration administrator. Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated shall request the administrator to designate the appellate arbitration panel within 45 calendar days of receipt of the written request for appeal of the trial arbitration. The appellate arbitration panel shall be selected within 15 business days of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Incorporated's notification and request of the arbitration administrator to designate a three-person appellant panel. No person shall serve as an appellate arbitrator in any dispute in which that person is precluded from serving under the applicable code of ethics governing the appointment of arbitrators.

The appellate arbitration panel may review an arbitration decision for legal sufficiency only and may reverse the trial arbitration decision on that basis only. The decision of the appellate arbitration panel shall be final and binding on all parties. Judgment upon an award rendered by the trial arbitrator or the appellant arbitration panel may be entered in any court having jurisdiction.

At the trial and appellant level, each party is individually responsible for paying the attorney fees and costs of all attorneys retained by the party. Further, each party is individually responsible for paying fifty (50) percent of the expenses associated with arbitration at the trial or appellant level of arbitration.
